Gov. Schwarzenegger Announces Local Assistance Center for Victims of Summit Fire

Governor Arnold Schwarzenegger today announced the establishment of a Local Assistance Center to help victims of the Summit Fire in Santa Cruz and Santa Clara Counties. The center, located at Corralitos Community Center, will provide state and local services to assist those who have been displaced by the wildfire, suffering property loss and economic and other damages.

“On behalf of the people of California, my sympathy goes out to those who suffered tremendous losses at the hands of the Summit Fire. This assistance center will provide important services to help these victims recover,” Governor Schwarzenegger said.

The center, located at Corralitos Community Center, 26 Brownsvalley Road, Corralitos, CA, will be open from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Thursday, June 12 and Friday, June 13. Representatives from the Department of Insurance, State and Consumer Services Agency, Contractors State Licensing Board, Department of Motor Vehicles and local non-profit organizations will be at the center to provide information on services available to help those impacted by the Summit Fire.
